Read the passage below and answer the questions.

Emiri writes her daily life in English for weekend homework.

I get up at six thirty. My sister usually does not get up like me. So, I wake her up every morning.

My mother and father make breakfast. Their dishes are very nice. My sister and I love them. I help to cook weekend. That is a fun time.

In spring and fall, I often go on picnics in parks with my family. I love eating under the clear sky. My favorite park is White Lake Park. It is a large park. We always go there by car. One day, I want to go a picnic by cycle.
